ABOUT

A Coach Who Gets Results

Lee is business minded and results oriented, and helping business owners define their own vision to meet their goals and take their business to the next level is her passion. She helps clients achieve double and triple digit profitability through improvements in sales, marketing, team training, systems development and strategic planning. She helps business owners grow from an "owner wears all hats" approach to development of a results driven and profitable team allowing the business owner to focus on the areas that he or she enjoys. Lee is so confident in her ability to help business owners that she only offers to coach a business if she can guarantee results.

An Accomplished Business Professional

Lee started her own business at the age of 10 and comes from a family of entrepreneurs. She has spent more than 20 years in sales and business development achieving many sales awards. Lee has had several successful businesses and corporate marketing and business development experience working for a technology company.

Her practical business experience coupled with her marketing, business development and corporate experience make her an invaluable resource for business owners and executives.

Pretty Darn Smart

But does not pretend to know it all. As an ActionCOACH, Lee belongs to a network of over 1,000 coaches worldwide. With this network of brainpower, previous experience and her B.S. in Organizational, Management and Leadership Lee is skilled at breaking down the complex issues into simple steps, and has the tools to help her clients succeed.

Devoted Wife, Mother & Grandmother

Lee has been happily married to Glen Baker since 1998 and they have four children and many grandchildren! Lee and her husband enjoy camping, fly fishing and traveling to historical sites in the United States, and spending time with family.
